Miss Caroline Miller, who has been visiting Miss Sue Moore, left yesterday afternoon for her home in St. Petersburg. Miss Miller is a charming young lady, and has made many friends here. She was called home on account of an accident to her father, Mr. A. F. Miller, of the Sunshine City.

Mrs. T. J. Killebrew and children arrived in the city last week from Orlando, for a visit to Mrs. Killebrew's parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. McClane.

Miss Louise Booe, who will teach in Jacksonville this fall and winter, is at home for a visit to her mother, Mrs. B. H. Seymour, till school begins.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brewer of Homestead are in the city on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Seymour. Mr. Brewer is a prominent business man of Homestead and he and Mrs. Brewer have been north in their car for a summer trip. They have been as far as New York and in spite of the sharks visited the Atlantic beaches. On their return they stopped to visit the Seymours, Mrs. Seymour having once been a resident of Homestead, where she yet owns valuable property. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, in company with Miss Louise Booe, saw the beauties of Silver Springs and Silver river Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. J. Blitch is visiting friends in Jacksonville.

Mr. Ivan Lanier, one of Ocala's clever boys, but now holding a position in Mr. A. J. Beck's drugstore at Fort Lauderdale, is here for a vacation visit to his old home and friends. He reports Fort Lauderdale prosperous and the Ocala colony well and happy.

Mr. W. D. Richey, the well known traveling man, now of Lakeland, who was a guest of the Ocala House Sunday, reports that Mrs. Richey has just returned home after a pleasant visit to Atlanta and Milledgeville.

Mrs. Frank Mustin and her sister, Miss Edna Smith, who have both been living at Sarasota, are at home again, Mrs. Mustin for a visit before going on to Barnwell, S. C., where Mr. Mustin is in business, and Miss Edna to stay. They liked Sarasota very much, but are glad to be in Ocala again, and their friends are very glad to see them.

Since the last report of the book committee the following books have been given into the library and catalogued: Dr. Richardson, four volumes of the "Life of Christ"; Mrs. J. E. Smith, four volumes of fiction; Mr. Miller, one volume of fiction, one volume of biography; Dr. Van Engelen, four volumes of fiction. Those who have promised books will please wait until the library is open to send them in.

Mrs. Minnie A. Bostick has returned from her summer vacation, and has re-opened her millinery store on the corner of Fort King avenue and Main street. While in the north Mrs. Bostick selected a fine line of goods, which will soon be on display in her store.

Mr. Bryan Butler, who has been in the city all summer, presiding at Gerig's soda fountain, will leave tomorrow for his home in St. Petersburg, in order to prepare for the re-opening of school. "Bryan" is a clever boy. He has made many friends in Ocala, and they hope he will return some of these days.

Mrs. F. D. Guerry is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Goss, of Gainesville.

The Dunn residence on Fort King avenue, which has been vacant for several months, is to be again occupied by Mr. T. M. Moore and family. Repairs on the house are being made preparatory to the Moores moving in.

Rev. F. R. Bridges of Ocala, presiding elder of the Ocala district of the Southern Methodist church, arrived last night on the A. C. L. He will hold the quarterly conference in the Methodist church this evening and will preach tomorrow evening. He departed on the short this morning for Pinellas Park, where he will spend the day.—St. Petersburg Independent.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

"Let Katy Do It," the Triangle Fine Arts feature, which was here on Saturday, is overdrawn but very entertaining. There is some good genre stuff in it.

"Rolling Stones," a Famous Players picturization of Edgar Selwyn's play, will be here today, with Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot. It is one of the first pictures released under the new Famous Players-Lasky combination.

Of "Rolling Stones" the movie reviewer of the Chicago Herald has this to say:

"They are having lots of fun down at Orchestra Hill this week. Patrons are laughing—not noisily nor intermittently, but in a constant undertone of chuckles, coming right from the funny bone. Every few minutes or so there'll be sandwiches in a sudden silence, eloquent of pathos, an effect of stern drama. Then, too, there are quick little gasps, born of thrills. Edgar Selwyn's comedy-drama, reproduced from the stage piece by the Famous Players, offers probably the most wholly interesting picture seen in some weeks, considering the many phases of acting it includes."

Oliver Morosco, whose features are released on the Paramount program, has gone on record as saying that the movies are on the decline. No doubt there is some foundation for his prediction. But what will happen will be the raising of the standard of the movies to a higher plane. There will be fewer producers, and fewer pictures, but the results all around will be very much more satisfactory. A medium with such possibilities as the movie will not be abandoned.

Tomorrow Carlyle Blackwell and Muriel Ostriche will be seen here in "Sally in the Alley."

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. Chero-Cola is sold only in the original bottle, sterilized, sealed and labeled at the plant.

Each bottle is filled by machinery—the syrup and carbonated water are accurately measured by machinery, therefore you get the same uniform pleasing flavor in every bottle, which is absolutely impossible under the ordinary soda fountain method.
